c) Provision of timely decisions, responses, and reasons

i. Describe any improvements / changes implemented in the last year.

At times in 2015, the time to complete a Trade Equivalency Assessment (TEA)—the alternative pathway to certification and registration for applicants who have not completed an Ontario apprenticeship but have equivalent experience and/or qualifications in the trade—was greater than the 9 weeks reported in 2014. The College assumed responsibility for conducting assessments from MTCU in April 2014 and was only able to regularize workflow and make accurate projections of average processing times for the first time in 2015. Towards the end of Q4, the College began a review of its TEA policies and practices, and improvements are expected to be made in 2016.

ii. Describe the impact of the improvements / changes on applicants.

Many TEA applicants experienced longer processing times than the 9 weeks stated in 2014 report, and the 8-10 weeks stated in the new Trade Equivalency Assessment (TEA) Application Guide and on the College's website.

iii. Describe the impact of the improvements / changes on your organization.

The College received a higher than expected number of applications since assuming responsibility for conducting equivalency to apprenticeship assessments in 2014, and in 2015, the College experienced inconsistent application volumes and intermittent backlogs, which impacted staff requirements.

d) Fees

i. Describe any improvements / changes implemented in the last year.

No changes to fees were made in 2015; however, beginning in 2016, the College will be increasing its fees for conducting equivalency to apprenticeship assessments and credential verifications to cover the costs of providing the services.

In May 2015, the College conducted its first annual review of its Trade Equivalency Assessment (TEA) service delivery after one full year of conducting the assessments after assuming responsibility from the Ministry of Training, Colleges, and Universities on April 8, 2014. The review indicated that the department providing the services was operating at a deficit, and that the College's current fees were not sufficient to recover the costs of providing the services. The Board of Governors approved the following changes to fees collected for conducting assessment services, beginning in 2016:

- Increase the TEA fee (i.e. verification of skills and experience) from $200 to $235;
- Increase the credential verification fee from $25 to $50;
- Establish a new $100 fee for file reactivations and reassessments.

These changes to fees will be reflected in an updated fee schedule in Section 25 of the College's By-Laws following an amendment by the Board.

ii. Describe the impact of the improvements / changes on applicants.

The impact of these fee increases on applicants is expected to be minimal. TEA applicants will be required to pay an additional $35 (+1.75% over current year) and those who require a reassessment will be required to pay an additional $100 (+100% over current year). Applicants who instead require a credential verification (Canadian out-of-province and military certificates) will be required to pay an additional $25 (+50% over current year). Additional staff resources implemented in 2015 is expected to reduce average processing times, and applicants should experience faster service in the future.

iii. Describe the impact of the improvements / changes on your organization.

The increased revenue resulting from these fee increases is expected to allow the College to recover the costs of providing assessment services while meeting a 6-8 week service delivery standard for completing equivalency to apprenticeship assessments and credential verifications.

g) Resources for applicants

i. Describe any improvements / changes implemented in the last year.

In March 2015, the College released a new application guide that provides step-by-step instructions on how to obtain a Trade Equivalency Assessment (TEA)—a detailed assessment of an applicant's trade skills and experience and a certification/registration pathway for applicants who have not completed an Ontario apprenticeship but have equivalent experience and/or qualifications in the trade, including experienced Canadian and internationally-trained workers. The Trade Equivalency Assessment (TEA) Application Guide provides step-by-step instructions and application requirements for 'equivalency to apprenticeship' applicants, including a list of required documentation and evidence of an applicant's skills and experience. This guide can be downloaded from the College's website (<http://www.collegeoftrades.ca/guides-forms>) or requested directly from the College by calling (1-855-299-0028) or emailing the College's Client Services Centre (info@collegeoftrades.ca).

In 2015, the College launched 'Earn While You Learn' (www.earnwhileyoulearn.ca), a new website for prospective apprentices that promotes the trades as a first choice career, primarily to Ontario's youth; provides important information on apprenticeship, including the steps to register as an apprentice; and showcases the different types of jobs in the trades, including a new campaign called 'Tune In, Trade Up', which highlights the different trades involved in the music industry in Ontario.

In July 2015, the College released a new Exam Preparation Guide, a resource that helps members prepare, write and pass the Certification of Qualification exam; the Guide has been redesigned and updated to make important information such as the exam details, preparation resources, exam scheduling, and the policy on exam re-attempts much clearer and simpler, as well as to provide new resources, such as separate 'one-pagers' on, for example, 'Essential Skills Upgrading' and 'Accommodations and Exam Day'. The Exam Preparation Guide is available for download on the College's website (<http://www.collegeoftrades.ca/resources/exam-process>).

Toward the end of 2015, the College released approximately 50 'trade fact sheets', which provide trade-specific information on different apprenticeship programs for prospective apprentices, including information on the steps to registering with the College, and are available for download on the College's website (<http://www.collegeoftrades.ca/trades-in-ontario>).

In December 2015, the Ministry of Training, Colleges & Universities (MTCU) launched a new online application for apprenticeship (www.ontario.ca/apprenticeship), which will allow individuals to complete the first part of their application for apprenticeship. This application with MTCU is required in order to register a training agreement, which is a registration requirement for membership in the College's Apprentices Class.

ii. Describe the impact of the improvements / changes on applicants.

The impact of these improvements to the College's resources for applicants and members is expected to be positive overall; specifically:

Prospective apprentice applicants now have more accessible online information on apprenticeship, the steps to becoming an apprentice, as well as a new online application option to initiate an apprenticeship with MTCU (a registered training agreement with MTCU is a requirement for registration in the College's Apprentices Class).

Those applying for a Certificate of Qualification and membership in the College's Journeypersons Class now have an improved resource to help them be successful in writing and passing the exam for their trade.

TEA applicants now have clear, step-by-step application instructions and a simplified list of requirements, as well as a more transparent and fair process and pathway to trade certification.

iii. Describe the impact of the improvements / changes on your organization.

For the College, these improvements improve transparency, accessibility and fairness for its applicants, contributes to the achievement of the College's public interest mandate, as well as the Board of Governors' 2015 strategic priority of 'improving apprenticeship experience'.

k) Mutual recognition agreements

i. Describe any improvements / changes implemented in the last year.

Signed by Canada's Premiers on July 16, 2015, the Provincial-Territorial Apprenticeship Mobility Protocol is an Agreement between the provinces and territories that aims to reduce barriers to interprovincial/territorial apprentice mobility by facilitating, to the extent practicable, the mutual recognition of in-class training, work experience and associated examination results for apprentices who are transferring permanently or temporarily to another province or territory.

The Ministry of Training, Colleges, and Universities (MTCU), as the body responsible for administering apprenticeship in Ontario, is reviewing its apprenticeship registration procedures and policies so as to facilitate, to the extent practicable, the mobility of apprentices in and out of Ontario—whether temporarily or permanently—including enabling mutual recognition of successfully completed in-class training, relevant work experience and examination results for apprentices moving between provinces and territories.

The College actively supports the implementation of the Apprenticeship Mobility Protocol by by regularly participating in a implementation Working Group with MTCU.

ii. Describe the impact of the improvements / changes on applicants.

Applicants to the College's Apprentices Class must have a registered training agreement with MTCU. To do this, the potential apprentice must meet with an MTCU Employment Training Consultant, who will assess and recognize an applicant's prior in-school learning and on-the-job hours by granting a program credit transfer. The impact on these apprentices is expected to be positive, in terms of an improved registration relocation experience, and more importantly, improved labour market and training outcomes from being able to pursue jobs anywhere in Canada and move without interruption to their training.

Describe any registration-related improvements/changes to your enabling legislation and/or regulations in the last year

Applicants to the College's Apprentices Class must have a registered training agreement with MTCU. Although not a direct requirement for registering with the College, the Minister of Training, Colleges, and Universities amended Ontario Regulation 421/12, under the Ontario College of Trades and Apprenticeship Act, 2009 (OCTAA), in order to establish in regulation, pre-existing operational requirements that that 'a training agreement shall not be registered unless the individual who is to receive apprenticeship training has successfully completed Grade 12 in Ontario or has successfully completed an academic standard that the Minister considers equivalent'—for all trades under OCTAA except for 37, which require Grade 10 or Grade 8 (<https://www.ontario.ca/laws/regulation/120421>).

To register a training agreement in the trade of Refrigeration and Air Conditioning Systems Mechanic, the individual who is to receive the training must have successfully completed Grade 10 in Ontario or has successfully completed an academic standard that the Minister considers equivalent.
