5. Dean Review Consultation

T. Dean thanked the Trade Board for meeting with him and noted the importance of hearing from Trade Boards during the consultation. He described the terms of reference for the review, namely the need to clarify and improve the manner in which the College makes decisions on issues related to scopes of practice and the College’s trade classification review process. A discussion followed concerning the ultimate goal of promoting public safety. T. Dean provided an overview of the consultation to date and noted that the consultation is beginning to identify common themes. The Trade Board was encouraged to monitor the Dean Review website for additional updates on the consultation.

6. College of Trades Update

6.1 Member Services Update

The Program Coordinator provided copies of the Registrar’s Report dated February 24, 2015.

6.2 Communication and Marketing Update

The Program Coordinator provided copies of the Spring 2015 edition of the “Trades Today” newsletter.

6.3 Compliance and Enforcement Update

The Program Coordinator provided an update on the latest Compliance and Enforcement statistics. A discussion took place with respect to an apprentice’s ability to work if he/she is not in good standing with the College. The Trade Board also discussed how complaints received in residential construction interact with Tarion’s jurisdiction.

6.4 Membership Statistics

The Program Coordinator provided statistics for the number of apprentices, journeyperson candidates and journeypersons registered with the College.

6.5 Financial Resource List for Employers/Apprentices

The Program Coordinator advised that a resource list detailing all grants and financial incentives for apprentices and employers has been posted to the College’s website.

7. Next Scheduled Meeting/Event

The Chair confirmed that the next meeting of the Trade Board is scheduled for November 20, 2015.
