Recognized Canadian Certificate Holder

Membership Application Guide

For Journeypersons who hold a recognized Red Seal
Endorsed Certificate of Qualification or other authorizing certificate issued by another Canadian province or territory

June 2021

ELIGIBILITY

This application process is for journeypersons who hold a Canadian trade certificate, license or other credential that is recognized by the Ontario College of Trades and who wish to obtain an Ontario Certificate of Qualification without further training or examination. You are eligible to apply through this process if you hold a valid recognized certificate.

Recognized certificates

Under the Ontario College of Trades and Apprenticeship Act, 2009, the College is required to recognize individuals who hold certain trade certificates issued in other Canadian provinces and territories as having met the requirements for an Ontario Certificate of Qualification.

To be recognized, a trade certificate, license or credential must meet the legal definition of an 'authorizing certificate' under the Ontario Labour Mobility Act, 2009 and must have an equivalent trade match in Ontario.

Equivalent trade matches

An equivalent trade match is a designated trade in Ontario which is equivalent to a trade in another province. An equivalent trade has no material differences between the trades' scope of practice, and includes:

- 52 Red Seal trades designated in Ontario
- 21 other trades with equivalent trade matches

If you are unsure whether your credential is recognized, email credentialcheck@collegeoftrades.ca.

APPLICATION PROCESS

If you hold a valid recognized trade certificate and would like to obtain an Ontario trade certificate, complete the following steps:

Step 1: Confirm that your trade certificate is recognized (see above)

Step 2: Contact the issuing body and confirm that your recognized trade certificate is valid and has not been revoked, suspended or cancelled.

Step 3: Ensure your submission includes the following:

- Completed application form (attached at the end of this guide)
- Photocopy of government-issued photo identification
- Copy of valid recognized trade certificate(s)
- Payment of credential verification fee(s) (see 'Fees' on page 3)

Incomplete applications will not be processed, and any fees paid will be refunded.

Step 4: Email, mail or courier your package to the College.

Email: credentialcheck@collegeoftrades.ca

Mail: Ontario College of Trades
PO Box 20009 RPO Bay Adelaide
Toronto, ON M5H 0A1

It is recommended that you submit your application by email to avoid delays.

Step 5: The College will verify with the issuing authority that your certificate is valid and an equivalent match to the trade you are applying for in Ontario.

Step 6: The College will notify you regarding your application by email or mail.

Some applications take longer because of the time it takes to verify your credentials with the issuing regulatory authority. To check on the status of your application, call 647-847-3000 (GTA) or 1-855-299-0028 (toll-free), or email credentialcheck@collegeoftrades.ca.

GUIDELINES

- Applicants are responsible for answering questions accurately and honestly, submitting a complete application including evidence of a valid recognized certificate and the required fee(s), and responding to any requests for additional information within the required time.
- Evidence must be verifiable and authentic. It is the applicant's responsibility to provide evidence that is verifiable by the College. Unverifiable or inauthentic evidence will result in your application being denied, and the College may initiate an investigation if an applicant is suspected of making false representations or submitting inauthentic documentation.
- Copies of documents may be submitted, but be prepared to produce originals upon request. Documents submitted by courier, mail or in person will not be returned to you so it is recommended that you keep the original of all documents.
- If you hold an authorizing certificate in more than one trade, you may submit one application form and provide information for the multiple recognized credential(s) you hold.

FEES

The fee for credential verifications is $50 plus Harmonized Sales Tax (HST), which is $56.50.

Please note:

- Fees are in Canadian dollars.
- Annual membership fees are not included and will apply separately and upon verification of your recognized credential and approval of your application.

- Separate fees apply for each trade certificate verification. Applicants applying for certification in more than one trade are required to pay one fee per trade certificate being verified.
- Application fees are waived for veterans and reservists of the Canadian Forces upon submission of a completed Canadian Forces Veteran/Reservist Fee Exemption Application form and verification of their military service with the Department of National Defence.
