Concrete Pump Operator is a trade regulated by the Ontario College of Trades and Apprenticeship Act, 2009. Qualified individuals may obtain a Certificate of Qualification, which confirms its holder has the skills, knowledge and experience that meet industry standards of practice for the trade.

In order to complete an apprenticeship training program in the trade, individuals must become members of the Ontario College of Trades (the College), and apprentices must remain active members for the duration of their apprenticeship.

Upon completing an apprenticeship, the Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities (MTCU) will issue an individual a Certificate of Apprenticeship. Upon meeting the College's registration requirements, the individual may apply to become certified and registered as a journeyman in the trade.

APPRENTICESHIP PROGRAM

An apprenticeship training program consists of on-the-job and in-school training. Generally, the time-frame to become competent in the trade of Concrete Pump Operator is 2159 hours (approximately one and a half years) consisting of 2000 hours of on-the-job work experience and 159 hours of in-school training.

For detailed information about this program, see the apprenticeship training standard: www.collegeoftrades.ca/training-standards

ON-THE-JOB TRAINING

An apprenticeship involves practical training provided on-the-job by a skilled worker, or trainer. The skills or competencies to be developed are set out by the trade's Apprenticeship Training Standard and are recognized by the industry as being essential to the practice of the trade.

As these essential skills are developed, the apprentice's sponsor or trainer signs the relevant sections of the training standard to indicate that the apprentice has met the individual training objectives by demonstrating the skills required of a skilled worker, or journeyman, in the trade.

Working with mobile concrete pumps requires that the operator hold a DZ license.

- communication skills in the workplace
- operate vehicle
- set up pump and components
- operate pump and components
- clean pump and components
- load and unload pump and components
- maintain equipment

Depending on the training delivery agency, in-school training may be available in one of the following ways:

- block release (full-time, for a set number of weeks)
- day release (one day per week from September to June)
- part-time (night-school programs)

APPRENTICESHIP – WHAT IS IT AND HOW DOES IT WORK?

Apprenticeship is a work-based training program for people who want to work in a skilled trade or occupation. It is also a post-secondary education pathway that provides access to well-paying jobs that require a high level of skill, judgment and creativity. Apprentices are paid while gaining work experience and their wages increase with their skill level. About 90% of apprenticeship training takes place in the workplace, while the remainder consists of theoretical instruction, usually obtained at a college of applied arts and technology or other approved training delivery agency. Apprenticeship training is delivered in partnership by the MTCU and the College. Training agreements between apprentices and sponsors are registered by the MTCU in accordance with legislation. Each individualized training agreement represents workplace training that the sponsor agrees to provide to someone who wants to learn a skilled trade.

ONTARIO COLLEGE OF TRADES – WHO ARE THEY AND WHAT DO THEY DO?

The Ontario College of Trades is the regulatory body for skilled trades professions in Ontario. The College enforces regulations that help protect the public and is committed to promoting the value of working with certified skilled trades professionals. The person and the sponsor submit a completed Application for Apprenticeship to the local MTCU Employment Ontario office. MTCU staff will arrange a discussion to assess the person's eligibility for the program and the sponsor's ability to provide the required training. Staff will explain the roles and responsibilities of all parties involved in apprenticeship training, including the College, and register the training agreement, MTCU staff will also explain the classroom training options and, together with the sponsor, monitor the apprentice's progress during the program. Flexible classroom training options are generally available to meet the specific needs of apprentices and their sponsors.
